Information on EMMC academic scholarships and criteria for selection of scholars

- EMMC scholar scholarships are being offered in periods of two weeks.
- Currently, scholars receive 1200 EUR per person per week (subject to change of EMMC regulations).

Criteria for the selection of academic scholars

- Scholarships can only be awarded to scholars affiliated with third-country institutions.
- EMMC scholars must demonstrate outstanding academic and/or professional experience and bring concrete added value to the delivery of the EMMC EMSD.
- Candidates are selected by the EMMC consortium to contribute to the joint EMSD programme within the European partner institutions.

EMMC scholars holding an Erasmus Mundus scholarship must:

- Commit themselves to actively participate in the masters course activities;
- Spend a minimum of two weeks and a maximum of three months in the partner HEIs;
- Perform teaching/research/student tutoring activities in the partner HEIs;
- Bring concrete added value to the EMSD programme and students (through teaching of specific classes, leading and participating in seminars or workshops, monitoring and tutoring student research/project activities, participating in thesis reviews, preparing new teaching modules, etc.);
- Contribute, after their visiting scholar activities, to the promotion and dissemination of the Erasmus Mundus Programme in general, and the EMMC concerned in particular, in their HEI and country of origin.
