Name: _____
 First name: _____
 Place and Date of Birth: _____
 Nationality: _____
 Passport Number: _____

the student, on the other part,

HAVE AGREED to the following terms and conditions.

The student hereby commits him/herself to pay for the participation costs for the 2-year during EMSD programme (120 ECTS), currently set at to a maximum of €8.000 per year of study for Partner country students/ €4.000 per year of study for Programme country students.

Self-financing students pay the participation costs (consisting of the tuition fees to the four participating partner universities plus insurance) to the consortium €8.000 per year of study for Partner country students/ €4.000 per year of study for Programme country students. All other expenses (living costs, study costs, visa and travel costs, etc.) are also at the expense of the self-financing students and are to be paid by the student his/herself. Self-financing students may receive additional funding for study/research activities as long as these are not from other EU funding sources/programmes.

The student hereby commits him/herself on his or her honour to duly attend the EMSD programme and attend the prescribed lectures and examinations. The programme consists of an obligatory and fixed mobility amongst the partner universities, that is:

When	What	Where
Semester 1 Sept. – Dec.	Foundations of System Dynamics Model Building	Bergen
Semester 2 Jan. – Jul.	Sustainability Issues or Management, Planning and Control	Lisbon or Palermo
Semester 3 Sept. – Jan.	Organizational Consultation and Group Model Building	Nijmegen
Semester 4 Feb. – Aug.	Thesis writing	One of the four universities, upon request a student can in addition also attend an associated partner

§4.

The student hereby commits him/herself to participate in evaluations/surveys conducted by the consortium and/or the Commission/Agency (EACEA), even if the student is not directly financed by the EU.

§5.

The Self-financing students are warmly invited to join the Erasmus Mundus Students and Alumni Association (EMA), <http://www.em-a.eu/>.

§6.

The student declares to meet the requirements to follow the proposed academic programme, particularly that he/she holds a Bachelor (or equivalent) degree and that he/she commits himself/herself to reach a minimum level of English as indicated on the EMSD website (www.emsd.eu), before the start of the programme.

§7.

The universities will endeavor their best to provide the student with supervision, assessment and support services of a professional standard. Relevant information concerning the structure and organization of the Master is published on the EMSD website (www.emsd.eu) and in the information package.

§8.

At the end of the programme, the student will receive the following degrees:

- a European Joint Degree: European Master in System Dynamics from the University of Bergen, the University of Palermo and the New University of Lisbon (120 ECTS). The names of the national degrees differ, but you will receive a Diploma Supplement which describes the programme and how the diplomas complement one another. Please see the table below for the corresponding national degree titles.

- In addition, you will receive a Master of Science in Business Administration degree from Radboud University (60 ECTS).

Name of University	Name of degree
University of Bergen	Master of Philosophy in System Dynamics
New University of Lisbon	Master of Science in System Dynamics
University of Palermo	Master of Philosophy in System Dynamics
Radboud University	Master of Science in Business Administration

§9.

The student will obtain assistance from the Admission & International Office of the assigned universities with all administrative formalities he/she may need, such as the period of enrolment at the university, welcome day(s), how to get the student card, accommodation information (cost of living, university residences, renting flats), sport facilities as well as cultural and social events, and, if needed, the residence permit, registration with the local authorities and visa information.

§10.

The student will be provided with IPS health insurance during the whole period of the studies. This comprehensive insurance policy covers all European Erasmus Mundus Minimum Requirements.

§11.

The student commits to behave with ethics during his/her studies. He/she will commit no fraudulent act, and will especially avoid cheating, falsification or plagiarism of any academic work. Moreover, he/she will not abuse or misuse the access to equipment and installations and will not perform any unauthorized access or violation of department, school or university rules. Any incident against this compromise will be treated by the EMSD Consortium Board and may cause the exclusion of the student from the EMSD Masters course.

§12.

In case of complaint, the student may appeal to the EMSD Consortium Board. The EMSD Consortium Board will consider the issue and will solve it as soon as possible. However for specific complaint about a specific service or facility provided by a Partner Institution, the student shall invoke the complaints procedure of that institution.

§13.

In case of non-attendance to the mandatory meetings,(lectures, practical sessions, field trips, informative and official meetings etc.)

- that the student cannot justify with medical certificates,
- for which permission has not been granted by the EMSD staff (to ensure permission, the student shall preferably ask in advance),

If the student fails to validate a year of study,

If the student is the subject of disciplinary measures, based on the rules and regulations of the home institution, leading to his/her exclusion from the EMSD Partner Universities,

If the student is the subject of legal prosecutions that prevent him/her from attending the EMSD Programme,

If the student withdraws from the EMSD programme, on his/her own decision or by force majeure, the student understands that he/she shall be excluded from the EMSD Master. In such an event the exclusion and a possible appeal by the student will take place on the basis of the rules and regulations of the home institution.

In such an event, the EMSD Coordinating Institution (Radboud University, the Netherlands) will reimburse the student for the months that the self-financing student is no longer studying in the EMSD programme.

§15.

Upon exclusion, the student shall in due time and before his/her departure pay for the following:

- the rent of his/her accommodation, for the month of the day of his/her exclusion,
- the bank fees corresponding to his/her accommodation insurance, for the month of the day of his/her exclusion,
- the bank fees to pay for his/her bank account and his/her visa card, for the year of the day of his/her exclusion §16.

For the student's information, the participation in the EMSD programme is part of the Grant Agreement (2015-1698) between the EMSD Coordinating Institution (Radboud University Nijmegen, the Netherlands) and the Education, Audiovisual & Culture Executive Agency (EACEA) of the Commission of the European Communities funds the EMSD programme.

§17.

Any alteration to the present agreement must be communicated in writing. All alterations to the initial situation must be immediately communicated by the student to the EMSD consortium. Upon mutual agreement of student agreement modifications, the EMSD consortium will issue addenda to the present student agreement.

Without prejudice to the general consequences laid down in national law applicable in the present agreement, the EMSD consortium reserves the right to cease the effects of the present agreement without recourse to any juridical procedure apart from adequate communication to the student. Failing agreement by both parts, the Dutch courts are designed as the only competent authorities to resolve any legal dispute between the EMSD consortium and the student emerging from the agreement. The present agreement will be governed by the Dutch Law.

The signatories declare that they have read and accept the conditions laid down in the present agreement.
